If you require house beer, wine & soft drink for your guests we would set up a bar for your guests to be charged to your account and payable prior to leaving on the day:

We understand it is not always known how many people may attend a wake. If is advised to go a little higher that the numbers you expect to ensure your friends and family are catered for.

If extra guests turn up on the day the organizer will need to pay extra for them prior to leaving.

50% payment is required to confirm booking then confirmation of expected numbers & further payment required the day prior to arrival.
